Heidi + Jürgen,

Thank-you for the effort and attention to detail you have put in to your villa.

We have visited Florida each year since 2001 and we stay in different cities each time. Your villa is the best we have stayed in. It is clean, looked after, well equipped with quality equipment and finishes. You have made a real effort with it and it shows.

It is always risky to book a villa on the basis of a website but your website is very comprehensive and the amount of information and photographs is impressive. Even after I booked the villa I visited the website and it was always updated with new photographs and information.

I take a long time to choose a villa that appears to meet all of our requirements and when we arrived I was relieved that your villa was everything I expected + more. This resulted in a very relaxing 2 weeks.
